EFAC 2007 in Sweden

Welcome to European Field Archery Championchips. Held at the property of Tjolöholm castle. We would like to see you there......

2007 30th July - 3rd of August

40 kilometres south of Gothenburg on a peninsula. you will find one of Swedens largest attractions, a beautiful manor house in the Elizabathan style. There is guided tours every day on the castle. The house, erected 1898 - 1904, facinate thousands of visitors every year. In the forest arround this castle you will find the courses at EFAC 2007. We will arrange camping for tents as well as caravans. Electricity, toilets and showers are also in place. Just walk a few hundred meters and you can take a bath in the sea. As the castle have a lot of visitors there are also restaurant and pub (with good capacity) very close to the camping. At the pub it could be some music in the evenings. You can also visit the big amusement park, Liseberg in Gothenburg. To have a closer look at Tjolöholm, please visit: www.tjoloholm.se. Another part of the castle is below.
